

Terms and Conditions

By accessing and continuing to use our services, including but not limited to the official website and decentralized applications (DApps), you automatically agree to comply with and be bound by these Terms and Conditions. Your ongoing use of our platforms constitutes your acceptance of all rules, policies, and guidelines outlined herein.

By using our services, you confirm that you meet all eligibility requirements based on your local jurisdiction. This includes having the legal capacity to enter into binding agreements. Our services are not intended for individuals who are prohibited from accessing or using cryptocurrency-related platforms under the laws of their country or region. If you do not meet these requirements, or if your use of the services violates any applicable laws or regulations, you must immediately cease using our platforms. It is your responsibility to ensure that your access and use comply with all relevant local laws and regulations.

These Terms and Conditions, and any use of our services, shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales. By accessing or using our platform, you agree to comply with all applicable laws and regulations within this jurisdiction as well as your own. We reserve the right to amend or update jurisdictional terms at any time; with changes reflected in this document. If any dispute arises relating to your use of our services or these Terms and Conditions, both parties agree to first attempt resolution through informal negotiation. If unresolved, disputes shall fall under the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales. We also reserve the right to require binding arbitration as an alternative dispute resolution method at our sole discretion.

You acknowledge and agree that your use of our services, including all transactions and related activities, is entirely at your own risk.

Cryptocurrencies are highly volatile and subject to regulatory changes, market fluctuations, and technological issues. We make no guarantees or warranties regarding the accuracy, reliability, legality, or profitability of any information or services provided. By using our platforms, you accept full responsibility for any financial losses, damages, or other negative consequences incurred. We expressly disclaim any liability for any financial harm arising from your use of our services.

Do not invest unless you're prepared to lose all the money that you put into the market. Cryptocurrencies and related products are high-risk and speculative investments. You should not expect to be protected if something goes wrong. Furthermore, Nothing on our website is meant to act as legitimate financial advice. All content is provided for informational purposes only and should not be interpreted as an endorsement, prediction, or guarantee of future performance.

Empz Economy does not provide tax advice. Users are responsible for complying with any tax obligations related to cryptocurrency transactions or investments. Please consult a qualified tax professional for guidance.

By using our services - you waive your right to hold Empz Economy, its affiliates, or team members legally responsible for any claims, damages, losses, or expenses that arise from your use of the platform. You agree to indemnify and hold all parties harmless from any consequences resulting from your actions while using our platform. We disclaim liability for any of our client's actions to the full extent permitted by the law. Any disputes shall first be attempted to resolve through negotiation.

Any tokens, services, projects, or external platforms that we recommend, advertise, link to, or sponsor are provided for informational purposes only. Their inclusion does not constitute an endorsement or guarantee of their legality, safety, security, or reliability. We are not responsible for any illegal, fraudulent, or unethical activities conducted by these third parties. Users engage with such content entirely at their own risk; and we disclaim liability for any resulting consequences.

By using our services - you agree not to engage in any unlawful, fraudulent, malicious, or prohibited activities. This includes but is not limited to violating any applicable local law, ignoring international regulations, engaging in illegal trading, hacking, exploitation of vulnerabilities, and uploading or distributing malicious software or harmful content. We do not endorse or support any illegal actions conducted by users through our platform. While we strive to monitor and prevent such activities, we cannot guarantee complete prevention and expressly disclaim liability for any unlawful content or activities.

We are not liable for any failure to perform, or delay in performance, of any of our obligations under these Terms that is caused by events beyond our reasonable control. This includes but is not limited to natural hazards, internet/power outages, third-party service failures, government actions, wars, cyberattacks, or other force majeure events.

We reserve the right to modify, update, or revise these Terms and Conditions - as well as our Privacy Policy, and Licensing Notice - at any time without prior notification. Continued use of our platform after such changes constitutes your acceptance of the updated terms.

Privacy Policy

We respect your privacy and are committed to protecting your personal data. The source code of Empz Economy is designed without any cookies or tracking mechanisms intended to collect user data. However, if any third-party components or external content integrated into the website contain trackers or cookies, we disclaim any liability for such tracking activities, as they are outside of our control. This includes any aspects of the website's source code that we did not manually design.

We do not knowingly collect personal information from any users. However, to comply with data protection laws, our site is not intended for users under 13 years of age. If you are concerned about the use of cookies and tracking scripts on external services integrated with Empz Economy, please review their privacy policies separately for details.

Our website is hosted using GitHub for static content delivery and Cloudflare for security and performance optimization, both of which implement industry-standard protections such as HTTPS encryption, DDoS mitigation, and web application firewalls (WAF). While these services may temporarily log technical data like IP addresses and request metadata for operational and security purposes, we do not retain this information long-term or use it for tracking. GitHub Pages, as a static hosting platform, does not process personal data beyond basic server logs, and Cloudflare's security features may analyze traffic patterns to block malicious activity. Neither we nor these providers guarantee absolute security, as no internet transmission is completely risk-free. For further details, please review GitHub's Privacy Policy and Cloudflare's Privacy Policy.

Licensing Notice

All brand-specific elements on this website including logos, service names, and documents are the exclusive property of Empz Economy or its licensors and are protected by intellectual property laws. You may not use, reproduce, or distribute any of these branding elements without our prior written consent. Unauthorized use of our branding may result in legal action. All content, software, and materials on this platform are protected by copyright among other intellectual property laws.

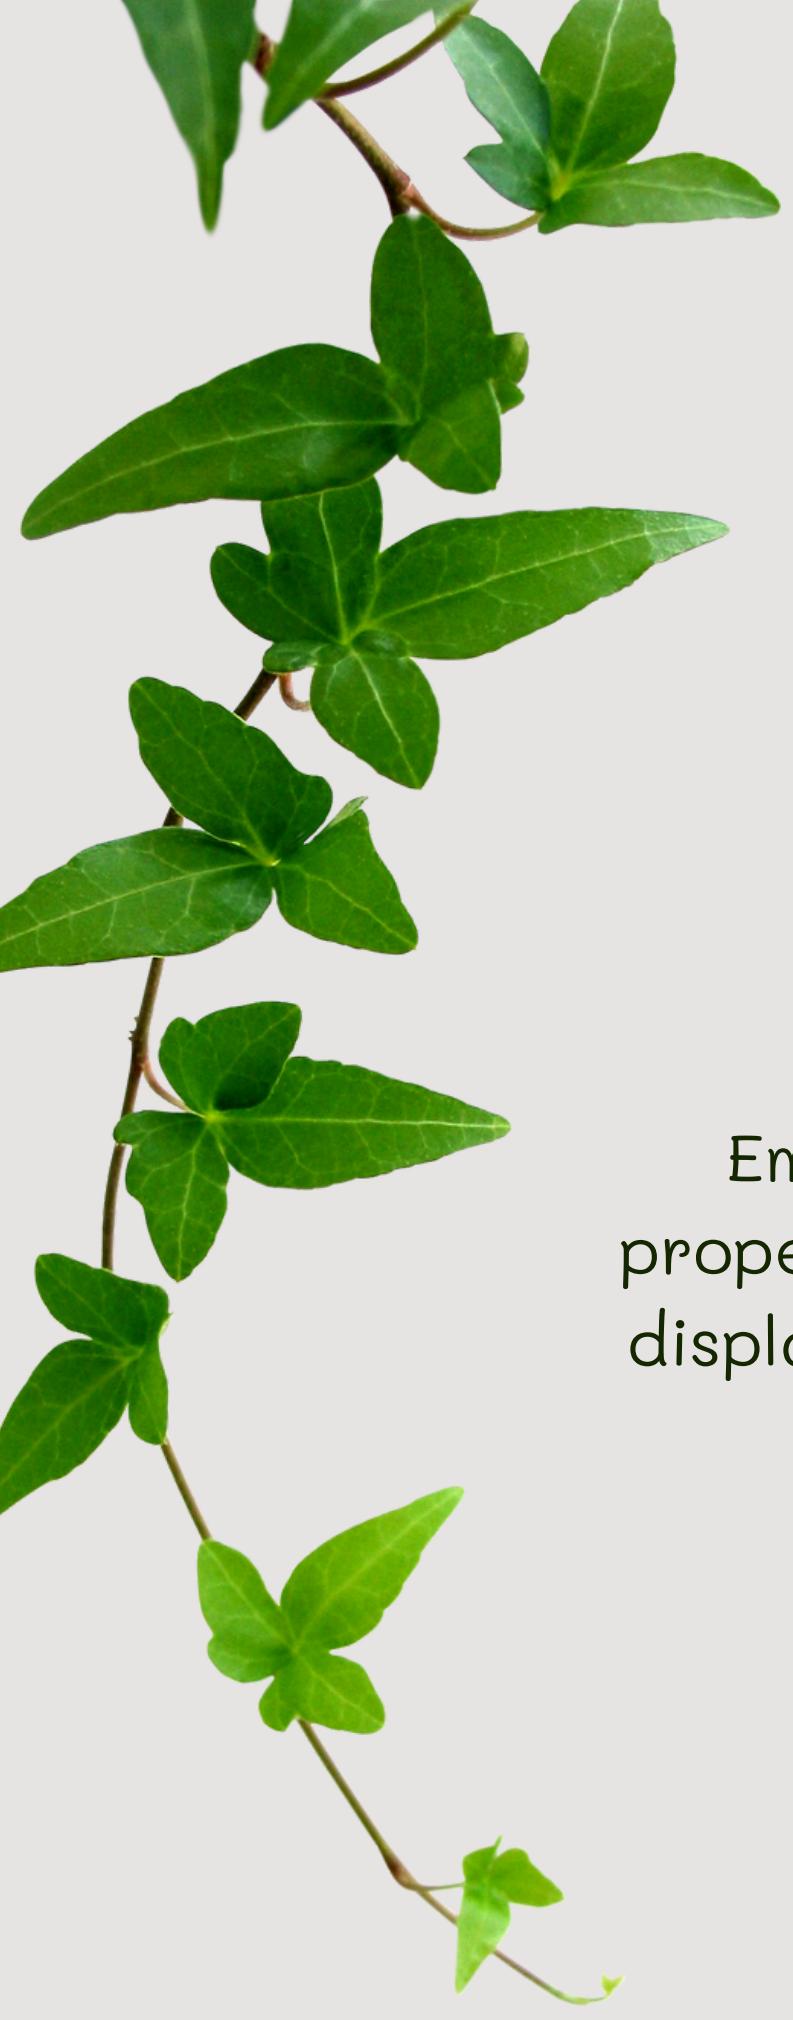

Our GitHub repository belongs to the organisation of Empz Economy, and is marked without a specified license. This means all standard intellectual property rights apply to the repository's content.

Furthermore, all source code of the official website and software that is not otherwise credited is the exclusive intellectual property of Empz Economy. This code is provided free of charge for personal and educational use only. However, you may not use it in any manner that infringes upon our copyright or impersonates our branding. You may not publish any work derived from our source code without prior written consent. Our code's open-source nature is to promote transparency and security through decentralisation; this does not imply in any way that our code is free to copy or distribute.

Some content on this website may have been created or refined with the assistance of artificial intelligence tools. All final outputs are reviewed, edited, and approved by a human before publication. While AI may support the creation process, Empz Economy retains full rights over all such content. No AI service holds any claim of ownership or artistic rights over the material presented on this platform.

We acknowledge that GitHub Pages and Cloudflare are granted a limited, non-exclusive, worldwide, and revocable license. This allows them to host, store, and distribute our content solely for the purpose of delivering it to users via their infrastructure. This includes necessary technical processes such as caching, CDN replication, and global load balancing to optimize performance, as well as the use of aggregated, non-identifiable data for service maintenance and security. Neither GitHub nor Cloudflare claims ownership of any content hosted through their platforms. All intellectual property rights, including but not limited to the design, code, and branding of this website, remain exclusively with Empz Economy.

A significant portion of the visual content on our website and promotional materials is created using Canva, a third-party design platform. Although we use Canva's tools to help design graphics and documents, all rights to the final content belong solely to Empz Economy. Canva does not claim any ownership or rights over the materials we create using their platform. This is in compliance with their Content License Agreement.
